Membership Director Tom Thomas / in his absence: Steve Waite reported.

New members and guests were introduced. Our membership is currently 378. Our roster on the website is updated monthly. Members are also asked to verify their roster information and notify Tom Thomas of any corrections.

13 vehicles from the club attended the Mecum auction in early January. The trip was enjoyed by all.

36 people will be enjoying the Caribbean cruise leaving on February 24th.

NCCC will be contacting us to determine who would like to get The Blue Bars magazine electronically. Currently there are some issues with receiving the magazine (those with northern and local addresses).

Bob reported that 336 members have signed up for the CON Facebook page. He encouraged all members to be active and post photos and activities attended on Facebook.

Our club will have 64 Corvettes gather at Park Shore Plaza on Saturday the 3rd at 6:30 AM and they will caravan together and line up on 5th avenue for the Cars on 5th Show.

Steve Waite Vice President

There will be no February lunch due to high season and several other events CON is having. There will be no March lunch due to the Sea Food Fest.

We will not be going to the Sebring event this year as a club. Steve has all details if you want to go individually.

Glenn Hutchinson President

The next meeting is scheduled for March 7, 2024, at New Life Church 7:00 PM.

Glenn proudly announced we won the Stangs vs. Vettes car show held at Coconut Point on January 27th. 99 members attended from our club. A total of 125 Mustangs and 215 Corvettes registered. CON won a large trophy, $1000 which will go to charities and be the host for next year's event.

Glenn reminded members that the seafood fest on March 10th is free to all members, please bring a dish to share. If you bring a guest please pay $25.

Glenn reminded members that they need to check and update the information on the roster with Tom Thomas.

Sandy reminded members that she has many name tags that were ordered but still not picked up.

New Business

Don Colapietro reported that the Donkey Dump is on Friday March 8th and the Seafood Fest is Sunday March 10th. Squares for the Donkey Dump are $10 each. Make your check to the American Cancer Society. He also reviewed parking instructions for Cars on 5th.

Glenn attended the NCCC meeting on January 14th. He noted the membership chairperson has resigned and someone new will be appointed soon.

Glenn asked anyone who had an idea for a club activity to contact him.

Future Corvette Owners of America (FCOA) membership for age 16 and under will be paid by the club. This is for the children or grandchildren of our members.

The Mardi Gras trip will depart on February 6th from Cracker Barrel exit 131 on I75.

50/50 winner was $158. It was donated back to the club.

Meeting adjourned at 8:10 PM
